Part II -- Inquiries Concerning EEO Program and Practices
Response to Question No. 4
Exhibit 16

It is Northland Cable Television's Employment Unit No. 1201 in Corsicana, Texas's policy to promote from within the organization to the greatest extent practical. Northland's Management and each Manager provide promotional and upgrading opportunities to all qualified employees on a non-discriminatory basis through the following actions:

- a. Managers who make decisions on placement and promotion are instructed on the company's EEO policy (the "EEO Policy") and are required to acknowledge, in writing, their review and understanding of the EEO Policy and EEO program and that they will abide by its mandates. The employment unit's efforts to promote in a nondiscriminatory manner to positions of greater responsibility are guided by the EEO program.
- b. Managers work to ensure that individuals who make decisions on hiring, placement and promotion consider all applicants without discrimination.
- c. Managers endeavor to give all those who apply equal opportunity to compete for higher paid positions. Managers encourage employees to obtain training in order to qualify for higher-paid positions, followed by assistance and counseling during annual employee reviews, and provide effective measures to enable employees with interest and potential to qualify themselves for such positions through informal and formal training.
- d. Managers provide opportunities to perform overtime work regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex or the presence of disability.
- e. Job vacancies are circulated internally through verbal notification during employee meetings, through Northland's website, office job board and digital poster in the office.
- f. Career advancement opportunities are available to all qualified employees. Northland fosters career advancement through the company's training programs: a) NCD training program that enables unit personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions, b) Sales Certification Program that supports and rewards unit personnel who demonstrate outstanding sales, product knowledge and customer service skills and qualify to earn additional compensation and c) Education Assistance program that encourages employees to further job related skills and improve performance.
- g. All employees are notified of their right to equal opportunity to compete for higher paid positions for which they are qualified through a Notice to Employees and Applicants ("EEO Notice"). The EEO Notice is displayed in a location visible to all employees in the employee hallway.

Part II -- Inquiries Concerning EEO Program and Practices
Response to Question No. 5
Exhibit 17

It is the policy of Northland Cable Television, on behalf of Employment Unit No. 1201, Corsicana, TX to send an annual letter (please see Exhibit 17a) to certain minority and female-owned businesses within approximately 75 to 100 miles of the system office to determine whether they can provide a needed product or service. If an organization responds to Northland's letter, system personnel are instructed to consider these minority and female-owned businesses whenever they are seeking a new product or service. The letter notifies each minority and female-owned business that supporting minority and female-owned businesses is a part of Northland's Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, and the system affords equal opportunity in employment and business transactions regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability or any other protected classes.

The system also places an annual advertisement (please see Exhibit 17b) in the local/community newspaper explaining Northland's EEO policy and encouraging business relationships with minority and female entrepreneurs.

Part II -- Inquiries Concerning EEO Program and Practices
Response to Question No. 8
Exhibit 20

Northland Cable Television's Employment Unit No. 1201 in Corsicana, Texas conducts its continuing review of job structure and other employment practices by:

1. Strategic Review – Periodically, the overall job structure of Employment Unit operations are reviewed by upper management for efficiency and analysis of the overall job structure's application to the company's evolving operations.
2. System Site Visits - System offices are periodically visited by upper management and representatives from the corporate office. During these visits and together with Employment Unit local management, operations are reviewed, and when business necessities arise, job structure is changed to accommodate changing business needs. An example of this type of change includes the updating and revision of Northland technical training program.
3. Employment practices are periodically reviewed by the divisional office, corporate office and, when appropriate, legal counsel prior to changes being made. These employment practices reviews include:
 - a. Evaluation of new positions;
 - b. Evaluation of position eliminations and terminations;
 - c. Evaluation and modification of disciplinary procedures;
 - d. Evaluation of company employment policies and procedures; and,
 - e. Evaluation of promotions, demotions, transfers and wage increases.
4. The Employment Unit's operating procedures are periodically reviewed by Employment Unit management, regional management and/or the corporate office and updated accordingly.
